* NOTE.—(1) The subsidy granted to Valavanur Panchayat in 1958–59 was cancelled as the Panchayat could not carry out the work before the end of 1958–59.

(2) The amount sanctioned to Madurai Municipality has been surrendered to the Government as it was unable to carry out improvements to fish markets.

(c) The basis on which the extension of fish markets (for which Government subsidy is given) is carried on—

1. The plans and estimates should be approved by the Fisheries Department.

2. The expenditure should be incurred only on the fish market and not on the general market.

3. The subsidies should be limited to a maximum of Rs. 12,000 in the case of Municipalities and Rs. 5,000 in the case of Panchayats, or 50 per cent of the estimate whichever is less.

4. The fish market should be leased to Local Fishermen Co-operative Society as far as possible.

5. The fish market should be maintained on proper lines as required by the Fisheries Department from time to time.
